

Season

All

Edition

All

Country

All

Gender

All

Sport

All

1896

2016

The United States has won more Olympic medals than any other country, with a total count exceeding 2,800 medals as of 2021. At the 2020 Summer Olympics in Tokyo, the Games featured a record number of 33 competitions and 339 events held across 42 venues. The Tokyo Olympics also marked the introduction of new sports to the program, including skateboarding, surfing, sport climbing, and karate.

52

Editions

230

Countries

66

Sports

136K

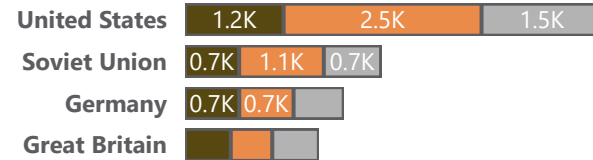

Athletes

Medals by

Country

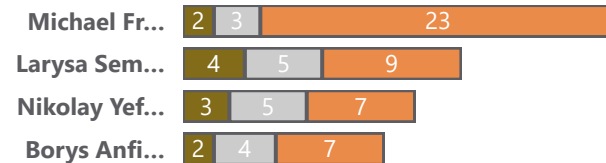

Sport

● Bronze ● Gold ● Silver

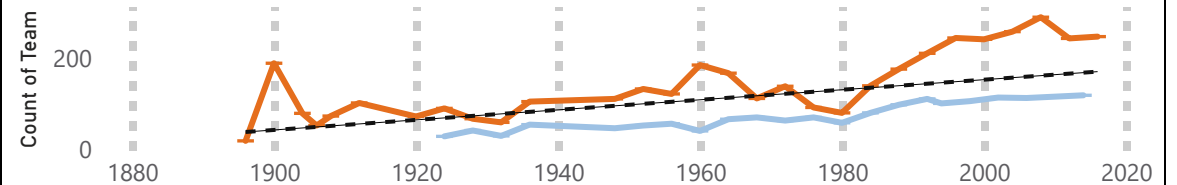

Medal by Athletes

● Bronze ● Gold ● Silver

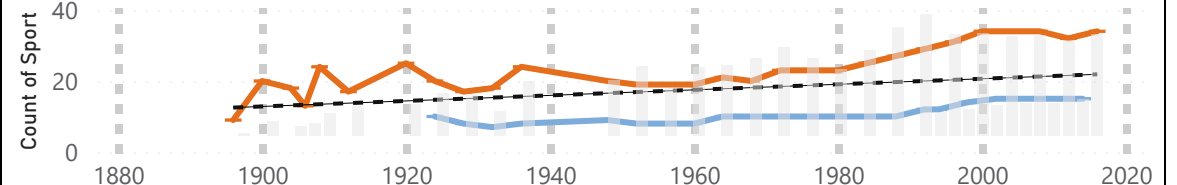

Count of Team by Year and Season

— Summer — Winter

Count of Sport by Year and Season

— Summer — Winter

Season

All

Edition

All

Country

All

Gender

All

Sport

All

1896

2016

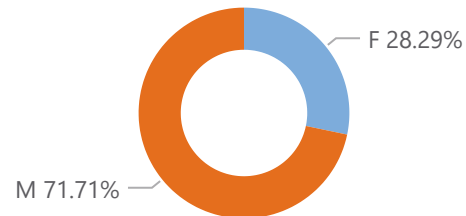

The youngest confirmed Olympian in history was 10-year-old Greek gymnast Dimitrios Loundras, who competed in the 1896 Athens Olympics. On the gender front, the 1900 Paris Olympics were the first to allow women to participate, a major milestone in Olympic history.

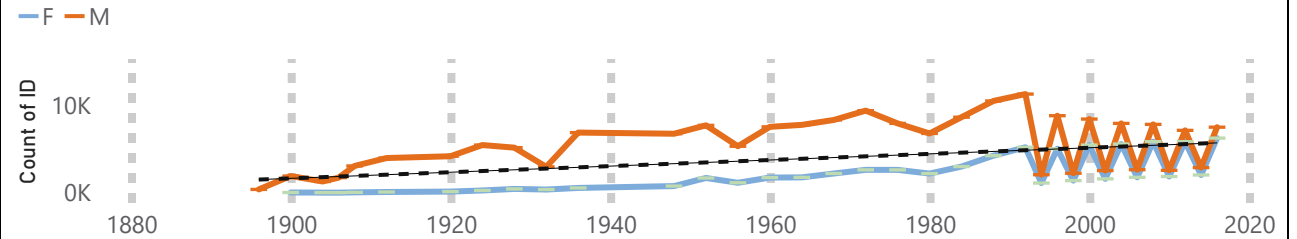

Athletes by Country

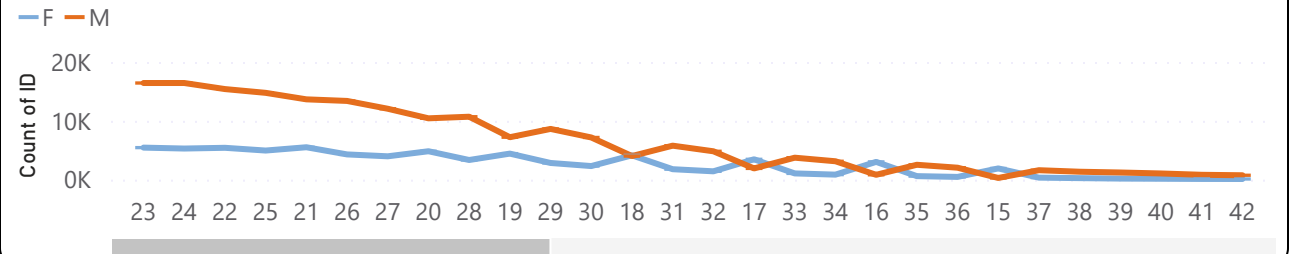

Gender Ratio of the Athletes

Athletes by Gender over the years

Athletes by Age

Season

All

Edition

All

Country

All

Gender

All

Sport

All

1896

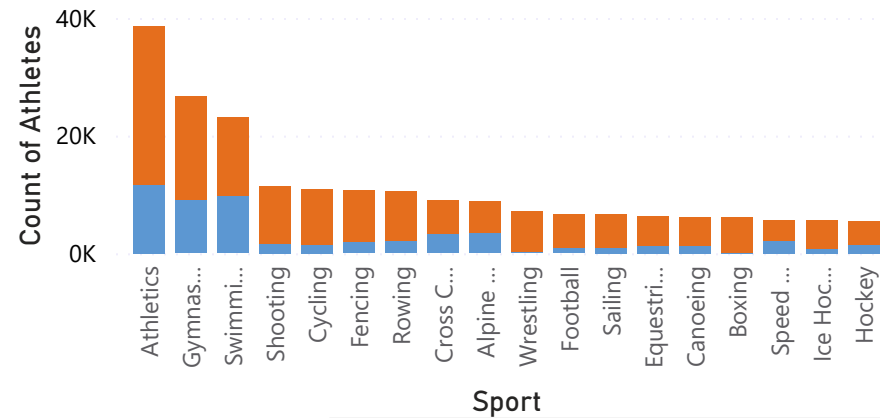

2016

The Olympics have showcased an expanding diversity in participation over the years, with the 2016 Rio Games featuring a record number of athletes, over 11,000, representing 207 nations across 28 sports.

Count of Athletes per sport

Sex ● F ● M

Count of Athletes per sport

Sex ● F ● M

